SHEFFIELD LAW FIRM RUN FOR CHARITY

Partners and staff from law firm Watson Esam, based in Paradise Square, Sheffield joined forces to raise money for charity by running in the British Heart Foundation City Jog at Graves Park recently. The run, which could not go ahead on its original planned date in June because of the heavy rain eventually took place in July.

Determined to beat the drizzle and make sure that they raised as much money as possible, more than a dozen people from the firm limbered up on a damp Sunday morning, well supported by family, friends and work colleagues who turned up to cheer them on. Kate Fitzpatrick, Managing Partner at Watson Esam said "It was a great turnout for us. Our original group of 15 plus was a little depleted due to holidays, but we are still very proud to have been able to take part and raise money for the British Heart Foundation. It was a great challenge for us – but really good fun. Some of us ran 5k and some of us managed 10k, and all of us really enjoyed it. We have a long tradition of working with charities in Sheffield and are very keen to ensure our involvement includes pleasure as well as work. We are looking forward to our next challenge, what ever that might be, and to involving as many of our partners and staff as we can.
