BOLLYWOOD WIVES

Sunset Boulevard, downtown Beverley Hills – well Fulwood actually – was the scene of such glamour on a damp evening in May, that it could easily have been mistaken for the filming of the latest Jackie Collins block-buster! In fact it was Jay Bhayani, partner at Sheffield Solicitors Watson Esam - sponsors of the Bollywood

Ball held in aid of Whirlow Farm at Cutlers Hall on 8th June - and colleagues, who were doing what all glamorous Hollywood wives would do before a big night – getting a make over!

Jay, whose commitment to the Whirlow Farm Trust has been instrumental in setting up and promoting the sell-out ball invited colleagues to her home where she demonstrated how to wear a sari, treated them to a make over - Bollywood style of course – and sent them home with an outfit to boot!. Leaving, with yards of glorious silk and bindi decorated forehead, Michelle Cooper, also a partner at Watson Esam said “It is great to be able to contribute to a worthwhile cause such as Whirlow Farm, but of course it is even better to combine it with having a good time too. I have really enjoyed tonight and am looking forward to the ball in June. I am sure it will be a huge success.”
