EXTRA ACCOLADE FOR SHEFFIELD LAW STUDENTS

Sheffield students Mark Edwards and Jemma Goldstone got more than they bargained for when graduating in Law from Sheffield Hallam University. Both attaining LL.B Hons, Mark and Jemma were also winners of prizes sponsored by Watson Esam Solicitors of Paradise Square, Sheffield. Mark won the award for 'the student who made the most worthwhile contribution to the Law Clinic' and Jemma won 'the best student in family law'. Both were delighted to find that their hard work was rewarded by the receipt of certificates and cheques from Watson Esam.

Toby Netting, family partner at Watson Esam said: "As a Sheffield firm ourselves, with a particular niche in family law, we are delighted to have sponsored these awards for some years. Clearly Mark and Jemma should be really proud of obtaining their law degree, but it is great to see that they have gone the extra mile with their enthusiasm for the legal profession in winning these awards. I wish them all the best in their future."
