

YORKSHIRE LAWYER AWARD
NOMINATION FOR SHEFFIELD
FAMILY LAW TEAM

Michelle Cooper, head of the family law team at Watson Esam Solicitors based in Paradise Square, Sheffield is delighted to announce that the department has been short listed for a Yorkshire Lawyer 2007 Award - the Private Client Award.

Michelle said: "This is a fantastic accolade for our department and our firm. It is the first time this department has been put forward for this prestigious and highly regarded award and to have been short listed is a real boost for us. Our family team has grown significantly over the last few years and we have worked hard to carve out what we feel is a significant position in the market in Sheffield. We feel that this nomination offers just reward for that hard work."

Jay Bhayani, senior partner at Watson Esam, and a previous winner of the Yorkshire Lawyer, Employment Lawyer Award said: "I am really proud of our family department and wish them the very best of luck when the winning firm is announced at the awards dinner at Ripley Castle in Harrogate in September.
