

NEW FAMILY SOLICITOR AT WATSON ESAM

The partners at Sheffield city centre solicitors Watson Esam are delighted to announce that its family department has been joined by solicitor Kelly Briggs.

Born, bred and living in Sheffield, Kelly has specialised in family law in South and West Yorkshire for over 6 years and joins Watson Esam from Irwin Mitchell in Sheffield.

Kelly is a member of Resolution, an organisation of lawyers who believe in a constructive, non-confrontational approach to family law matters and is also a member of Sheffield JCI.

As an adventurous spirit, Kelly took a year out recently to travel around the world – where she found out how the Australian lawyers do it whilst working as a paralegal in Sydney – and she also got quite a taste for sky diving!

Michelle Cooper, partner at Watson Esam and head of the family department said “I am delighted that Kelly has joined our team. I am sure that she will be an asset to our firm and our clients, helping us to continue to develop our expertise in high profile, high worth matrimonial work, whilst at the same time working to ensure that we stay ahead of the game in relation to the proposed changes to family legal aid to ensure that quality legal aid services are there for those who need it.”

Kelly can be contacted at Watson Esam on 0114 275 3350 or kelly.briggs@watson-esam.co.uk.

---